Divine Mercy Holy Hour – 3:00 PM

Dear Parishioners:

Χριστὸς ἀνέστη! – Ἀληθῶς ἀνέστη! Christ is risen! – He is risen indeed (Alleluia). A most joyous Easter greeting goes out to you, your family, and the entire Holy Rosary community. When His Excellency Archbishop Sample celebrated the Chrism Mass last Monday, he was visibly moved by the number of priests who concelebrated and filled the cathedral. This is not unlike the feeling that I've had recently at our humble parish church. Now that we can have upwards of 200 people in our building, and with our most demanding liturgies (almost) behind us, come Easter Monday we will rid ourselves of the unnecessary burden of registering for Masses, even the 9:00a Sunday. With this privilege, please pay attention to the Archdiocesan guidelines to ensure that we can continue to enjoy them.

We also welcome our new Catholics to our family. It has been a long and difficult journey for them, especially in this year of lockdowns and less-than-ideal virtual communications. Yet, I have discovered that they are indeed a persistent lot. Please welcome Alexander Maynard, Logan Richter, and Brandon Stuvick. I am overwhelmed by their individual stories and the various ways that the Holy Spirit worked in each of their lives to bring them to the well of the Faith. May they continue to be enriched by sacramental graces, as well as the loving community of Holy Rosary.

Likewise, may your families enjoy the triumph of the Resurrection. Spend time with your family, teach the Faith, and relish in the fact that Jesus Christ suffered and died for our salvation. In our current culture, which eschews many Christian values, we take comfort that despite the many challenges that we might encounter, all of it is grass compared to the Hope of heaven.

God bless you all,

- Fr. Corwin Low, OP

DIVINE MERCY HOLY HOUR April 11 | 3:00 PM

Please join us on Divine Mercy Sunday for Exposition, Confessions, recitation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, and Benediction.

POST-EASTER UPDATES

1. Coffee and doughnuts will be returning on Divine Mercy Sunday at its regular times! Please note that per Multnomah County guidance, masks should be worn when not consuming and distance should be maintained.
2. Registration for Masses (including the 9:00a Sunday Mass) are no longer necessary (pending no detrimental changes to public safety).
3. Front doors will remain locked because the north vestibule is the only place to distribute worship aids and other important items.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL # 15605

Your Knights of Columbus Council #15605 would like to thank our brothers and sisters of the parish for their support over the years. We have been able to support numerous causes through your generosity and our members' hard work (MLK parish sign, Christmas Giving Tree, Keep Christ in Christmas billboards, Thanksgiving Food baskets, Christmas cookies program, Mother & Child Education Center, multiple crisis pregnancy centers and Oregon Right to Life, parish Sunday fellowship and numerous suppers, St. Luke's Productions events, parish picnic, First Communicants, Ignite Your Torch, Dominican & Diocesan religious in formation, St. Martin de Porres food bank, rent/utilities/other daily needs of parish members, and more).

We are blessed to have a pious community whose support over the last 3 years has helped us donate $23,000 and 5900 hours of labor to charitable causes, including service to the parish. Additionally we have spent 200 hours with sick/disabled members and their families. As Knights, we are called to protect the suffering and the vulnerable and to act on that calling through prayer and charitable good works. This is at the core of the Catholic values to which we are dedicated. I encourage single and married men, including their wives and families, to speak to one of our Officers to learn more about who we are and what we do. Thank you again, and God Bless you for your past and future support.
