Holy Rosary Chapter Dominican Laity Meeting - 7:30 AM

Dear Parishioners:

There is a wonderful pious practice that many at Holy Rosary practice that I want to let everyone know about. It's important to know about it even if you don't practice it yourself for some good reason. This is the practice of praying in preparation before Mass begins and praying a prayer of thanksgiving following Mass. This is a wonderful practice that I recommend to everyone.

Why does this custom exist?

As you are probably aware, sometimes when we come to Mass it takes a while to settle into the mood of worship. If we arrive early and take some time to set aside earthly cares by talking to God and asking for him to come into your heart and prepare your mind for the sacred liturgy, this practice does wonders for preparing one's disposition towards and intention for the Mass. In the back of the Roman Missal used by the priest there are a series of prayers for him to prepare himself for Mass in a similar way. Particularly the prayer before Mass by St. Thomas Aquinas is well suited for anyone, priest and people alike.

Also, following Mass, instead of rushing to the car to or to the hall to grab a donut, it's good to thank God for the gift that he has given us in being able to share in his sacred mysteries, to worship him and for the grace that he offers us through faithfully assisting at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. This is different than one's prayer following Holy Communion because, as you know, we don't assist at Mass simply so that we can receive Holy Communion. We principally come to Mass to worship God and if we are so disposed then we may receive Holy Communion at Mass. So, this time after Mass is an opportunity to offer him our gratitude. Again, the prayer of St. Thomas Aquinas after Mass is a great prayer for everyone.

This means that there are three opportunities for private prayer in conjunction with the Mass. The first is to arrive early enough to kneel down in prayer to prepare ourselves for the act of worship. The second is following the reception of Holy Communion (my personal favorite is Padre Pio's prayer following the reception of Holy Communion), and the third is offering thanksgiving after Mass.

At the very least we should be aware of these practices even if we are unable to practice them ourselves so that we respect those who are offering these prayers by not troubling them with making too much noise such that it's hard for them to focus on their prayers. This also gives the priest an opportunity to remove his vestments and offer his own prayers of thanksgiving before greeting people after Mass. But, I really do recommend these practices to everyone. Teach them to your children. This simple practice can greatly increase your intentional participation in the graces being offered in and through the supreme act of worship, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

CHESTERTON ACADEMY BUILDING THE FOUNDATION BENEFIT When we hear the term "Culture of Life" our minds often turn to the Pro-Life movement, which it rightly should; however, to fully build the Culture of Life we need a cultural shift in behavior and attitude in all aspects of our living--a shift in how we see the world and our place in it. Chesterton Academy of St. Anthony of Padua seeks to do this at the high school level. The mission as stated is "to help parents raise up a new generation of joyful leaders and saints, educated in the classical tradition and the truths of the Catholic faith." It is a "rigorous, integrated curriculum [which] unlocks students' potential and prepares [them] to succeed in college and professional life, and to excel in service of family, of country, and of Christ our Lord." Southwest Washington and the Portland area NEED this cultural shift. Chesterton Academy of Saint Anthony of Padua will be having a benefit for the school on the afternoon of Sunday, February 27th at 4PM in Siena Hall at Holy Rosary Church. We will have a brief presentation on the life of G.K. Chesterton followed by a chance to enjoy each other's company and a delicious assortment of finger foods. We will conclude with a presentation about our school with an invitation to join in supporting us. Please note this event is for Adults only (nursing babies are welcome as well). A limited number of seats have been purchased by an anonymous donor, so your ticket will be no cost to you!
