Third Sunday of Lent

Coffee and Doughnuts after morning Masses

Dear Holy Rosary Friends and Families,

As we journey through this season of Lent, our community events, such as the Stations of the Cross and Soup Supper, manifest our shared faith journey. I'm most grateful to our Knights of Columbus for hosting these soup suppers after the stations. These gatherings and others—such as the new parish spaghetti dinner coming this year, receptions after Masses, the ladies' Advent brunch, or St. Joseph's men's dinner— all serve as expressions of our communal faith, love, and dedication to fellowship and service.

The heart of these events lies in the spirit of stewardship. Through the selfless giving of time, talents, and treasures, our parish thrives and truly becomes a vibrant expression of God's love in our community and church. The call to stewardship is a call to participate in the very work of Christ, who came not to be served but to serve. For many years, we have been blessed with a dedicated team of volunteers who have helped set up, serve, and clean up many of our parish-wide events. Be sure to thank these volunteers who serve our parish!

This year, as we renew our commitment to the mission of stewardship, I have asked Jessica Straub, who is both the volunteer and events coordinator for our parish, to assist me with calling our parishioners forward to volunteer and serve our family of faith. Building a new team of event volunteers to serve our community will be essential for the continued growth of our parish. Whether you feel called to lead, support, or participate in our various parish events, your contribution of time and talent is invaluable. Your participation is a living witness to putting faith into action and giving some of our seasoned volunteers a much-needed break.

We are reminded in Scripture that "as each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Peter 4:10). In this spirit, I encourage everyone to consider how they might be called to contribute to the life of our parish through volunteering. Your involvement is not only a gift to our community but a path to personal spiritual growth.

Those interested in joining the new event volunteer team or learning more about the opportunities to serve are warmly invited to contact me, or Jessica at jessica@holyroarypdx.org. Your response to this call for volunteers is a powerful affirmation of your faith and an act of love for our parish. May our efforts be a testament to the vibrant spirit of Holy Rosary Parish and a source of blessings for our church and the families we are called to serve.
