Dear Parishioners:

The week before Christmas is the second busiest of the year. This year we had the added complication of having Christmas fall one day before a Sunday. That, and we also feel the absence of Fr. Mark Francis. Thanks be to God, on December 23rd between Fr. Gabriel and myself we were still able to hear seven (7) hours of confession! This is a wonderful kind of 'busy'; still, we do really look forward to the new year (and the lengthening of days).

This past year many of us have had difficulties, challenges, and hardships. Sometimes God allows these things to happen to wake us up, to reveal to us that our place is really with him in the Kingdom of Heaven. Often, we get so wrapped up in the things of this world that we forget this particular truth. While this knowledge doesn't necessarily make us any more comfortable, it does give us pause to think about what is important in this life and what is not. Often, those things that we think are so important are just secondary.

As we begin this new year, let us turn to the Blessed Virgin Mary and her example. We honor her on January 1st as the Mother of God. We honor her because we recognize what she did for the salvation of the world. Her fiat, her yes to the Holy Spirit literally enabled the Incarnation. Let us say yes to Jesus Christ and his Church in obedience, that we may conform our lives to the gospel, and that we may ultimately be with Him and all the saints in heaven.

A very Happy New Year to you all.

- Fr. Corwin Low, OP
