Dear Holy Rosary Friends and Families,

As we are fully immersed in summer activities remember that in both Mosaic Law and the Commandments given to us by Jesus Christ, we are to love God above all. Many of us will be traveling either locally, throughout our beautiful country, or even abroad. We must ask ourselves if we've planned appropriately for fulfilling the Sunday obligation to attend Mass?

Aside from some very remote places, we can find Catholic churches nearly everywhere—some of them are unique treasures in the own right. And, it's a great opportunity to meet other Catholics, not to mention to, ahem, hear other preachers. Of course, I'd like to say that Holy Rosary excels in our attention to detail. But we are not alone.

The obligation is not here to force us to do anything. But rather, it's there to remind us that we owe our complete existence to Him. While we do want to take some rest and relaxation, we should take note that the ability to rest and relax is also due to His grace and providence. Many if not most of the people on this planet of ours cannot and will not ever be able to travel or even to take substantial time off.

For this reason, we should be mindful and extraordinarily thankful for all the gifts that God has given us. We do that by worshiping him—on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. As usual, a priest or bishop can dispense individuals from this obligation under many circumstances. Ordinary travel is not usually one of them.

Blessings to you and your families,

- Fr. Corwin Low, OP

BABY BOTTLE DRIVE UPDATE

It has come to the attention of Holy Rosary and the Knights of Columbus that the director of the Mother + Child Education Center (the recipient of the Lenten baby-bottle drive funds) made some disturbing public statements indicating that the center operates outside Church teaching. These contrast with how the center has represented itself in previous years. As such, we will no longer be able to offer this organization further donations. Rest assured, we are in the process of identifying a new recipient for next year's baby-bottle drive. This ministry is important to the mission of the Church.

Parishioners who wish to access the pantry are welcome to do so by calling either Sue Scheese 360-843-6787 or Cecelia Hoesly 971-506-5117. Do you wish to help the pantry? Non-perishable food donations are welcome in the office or vestibule, and financial contributions are welcome, payable to Holy Rosary Church, memo "Food Pantry".

THE FEAST OF ST. ANNE, THE MOTHER OF OUR LADY will be celebrated according to the Dominican Rite on Tuesday, July 26, at 7:00 PM. Cantores in Ecclesia will sing Claudio Monteverdi's Missa 'In illo tempore' (1610) and the Gregorian Chant Proper. A wine and cheese reception will follow in Siena Hall. According to the apocryphal

Protevangelium of James, SAINT ANNE was the wife of Joachim, both of whom were desolate because of their childlessness. One day while St. Anne was praying, an angel appeared to her and told her she would have a child, and St. Anne promised to dedicate the child to God. The child was Mary, mother of Jesus. The devotion to St. Anne is founded on the bond which unites her to Mary and to the Incarnate Word. Its ancient liturgy dates from the sixth century in the East and the eighth century in the West. It was authorized by Urban IV in 1378. In 1584 Gregory fixed July 26 as the date of the feast, and Leo extended it to the whole Church in 1879.
