Farewell for Fr. Gabriel after morning Masses

Dear Holy Rosary Friends and Families,

The Greek philosopher Heraclitus is famous for the expression, "change is the only constant in life." While we can wax philosophical on this tenet, we often have difficulties accepting it. That's because we put a tremendous amount of energy trying to keep things "as they are." Yet, we know this is irrational. As Catholics we understand that trials and tribulations often come with change, and it is why we channel (or hopefully channel) our efforts to acceptance by using that other time-tried expression, "offer it up." We often roll our eyes at this expression, but it helps us focus our attentions on Jesus Christ, who loves us and offered up the ultimate price for us.

As many of you know, Fr. Peter Do has been the prior (superior) of the Holy Rosary Priory, and Interim Director the Rosary Center for the past couple of years. Because he has never been assigned to the parish, he was not overly visible, particularly on weekends when he provided supply for various parishes throughout the Archdiocese. That's all changing.

Fr. Dismas arrived and took over his role as the Director of the Rosary Center at the beginning of July thus freeing up Fr. Peter to step into his role as pastor. Thus he'll be more present at Sunday and Daily Mass. Please make certain to say hi to him, particularly in the hall during coffee and doughnuts. He would be delighted to meet you.

Blessings to you and your families,

- Fr. Corwin Low, OP

FIRST FRIDAY DEVOTION

August 5 | 7:00 PM

THE FEAST OF ST. ANNE, THE MOTHER OF OUR LADY will be celebrated according to the Dominican Rite on Tuesday, July 26, at 7:00 PM. Cantores in Ecclesia will sing Claudio Monteverdi's Missa 'In illo tempore' (1610) and the Gregorian Chant Proper. A wine and cheese reception will follow in Siena Hall. According to the apocryphal Protevangelium of James,

SAINT ANNE was the wife of Joachim, both of whom were desolate because of their childlessness. One day while St. Anne was praying, an angel appeared to her and told her she would have a child, and St. Anne promised to dedicate the child to God. The child was Mary, mother of Jesus. The devotion to St. Anne is founded on the bond which unites her to Mary and to the Incarnate Word. Its ancient liturgy dates from the sixth century in the East and the eighth century in the West. It was authorized by Urban IV in 1378. In 1584 Gregory fixed July 26 as the date of the feast, and Leo extended it to the whole Church in 1879.
