Dear Parishioners:

At the beginning of the pandemic, the virtue of prudence prompted us to reasonable social distancing measures in many aspects of our lives. During this past year we asked parishioners to reverse the customary flow of traffic for the reception of holy communion: approach by way of the outside aisles to the communion rail, and then return to your pews by way of the central aisle.

We are happy to switch back that flow starting this weekend. With more than a year of data and studies, each of us has a better understanding of our own health risks, the vaccinations are readily available for those who wish to take them, and you are free to maintain whatever level of social distancing you deem prudent.

Please approach up the central aisle. Please return down the outside aisle.

May this be one of many things we reclaim as we get back to normalcy!

- Fr. Mark Francis Manzano, OP

Dear Parishioners:

This coming week we must say farewell to Br. John Paul Puschautz, CSJ. He has made an incredible mark on our parish, helping to ignite our lay ministries, and bringing us out of the pandemic fog that we've all experienced over the past eighteen months. He has been a valuable instrument in God's hand, especially with our youth and young adults. I will miss his energy and evangelical charisma.

While he does leave Holy Rosary, he will be entering our novitiate on August 17th with plans to become a full-fledged Dominican Friar. Continue to pray for him and his endurance in his vocation. The novitiate is a time of personal prayer and reflection in our Dominican Tradition. While it is grace-filled, it does come with some challenges. As you read this, I ask that you say a Hail Mary for his intentions.

The good news for us is that in the summer of 2022 he will likely visit us again but in our Dominican habit as a novice.

God bless you all,

- Fr. Corwin Low, OP
