Dear Parishioners:

“What are those things on the altar?” This is a question I’ve been asked over the last couple of years and never have had the opportunity to answer in a wider forum. Since our major liturgical season has come to an end (whew) and COVID restrictions have been much relaxed, I have more opportunities to focus on positive aspects of our Faith. The simple answer to the question is that they are reliquaries.

They hold relics from some of our treasured Saints. We have four reliquaries not because it’s a required number but because it looks balanced on the altar.

A relic is not a talisman nor is it anything magical. Rather they are signs that point to the people who had strong faith or have had a significant role or inspiration to the faithful. On the other hand, there have been instances where the Holy Spirit has worked through relics to bring particular graces to individuals and/or situations. But we must be continually mindful that these relics must ultimately lead us to Christ. They do not draw attention to themselves and this misunderstanding has often given non-Catholics an opportunity to criticize them as superstitious tokens.

Rather than go into the theology of relics, it’s best to think of them as reminders of those who have gone before us. Do we not treasure the pocket watch of our grandfathers, or the rosary of our grandmothers? Do we not keep photographs of our children and grandchildren? These acts are not that far off the mark. Glancing at or touching these items often reorients our thoughts and prayers. Again, for relics they lead us to Christ.

As for the relics on our altar, this is the list:

1. St. Blaise (1st class)
2. St. Vincent de Paul (1st class)
3. St. Juan Macías, OP (1st class)
4. St. Teresa of Jesus (1st class)
5. St. Rita of Cascia (2nd class)
6. St. Gregory (the Great) (1st class)
7. Bl. Imelda, OP (1st class)
8. St. Pius X (1st class)
9. St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (1st class)
10. St. Maria Goretti (1st class)
11. St. Martin de Porres, OP (1st class)
12. Holy Martyr of Gorkum, OP (1st class)

Relics are categorized according to importance. A 1st class relic comes from their body (e.g., blood, bone, hair). A 2nd class relic comes from something that they wore or used with frequency (e.g., tunic, habit, staff). A 3rd class relic comes for any item that a saint touched.

We also have some more significant relics that we store away for more important liturgical days. When we bring them out, they usually replace the statue of the Sacred Heart or of St. Joseph, and we adorn them with lit candles. We do have, for instance, a relic of the True Cross, the veil of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Crown of Thorns, among others. It is amazing to think that our humble Church has some of these very inspirational items. Hopefully they will help inspire us to contemplate more on our Faith, especially the Incarnation of Christ and the gratuitous love that God has for each and every human being.

God bless you all,

- Fr. Corwin Low, OP

CONGRATULATIONS to our friars ordained to the priesthood and diaconate by San Francisco Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone on Saturday, June 5th! HELP NEEDED: LITURGICAL LINENS

The quiet, behind-the-scenes caring of the liturgical linens, vestments, and more is a unique and active way of spending time with Our Lord. Ordinary tasks of washing, ironing, cleaning, and needlework are anything but that when doing so for Christ. Your parish is currently in great need of help with these tasks. Perhaps you have heard a calling to help your parish in this extraordinary way of caring for Christ. If you are interested in learning more or would like to volunteer, please contact Cary at caryschmidgall@gmail.com.

FATHERS AND SONS: GROWING TOGETHER

The third in this series of programs will take place on Saturday, June 26th. The goal of the program is to facilitate the friendship and communication between dads and sons as they learn together 1. How to build one's relationship with God (life of prayer); 2. Grow in Wisdom (that body of knowledge and principles that enable one to live a noble life and make good decisions); and 3. Build Virtue. After the program there will be optional additional activities like visits to the needy, sports or learning a new practical skill.

For Whom: Dads and their sons (preferably of ages 9 - 18)

Cost: Small contribution for snacks

11:00 Feast Day Mass for St. Josemaria Escriva, with the Children's Choir of Cantores in Ecclesia

11:15 Confessions available for dads and sons

11:30 Lunch provided - a time to get to know one another.

12:00 Get-together in Siena Hall – snacks, doughnuts, coffee

12:00 Wisdom Seminar: Evolution and the Role of God by Michael J. Kelleher, Ph.D., Chemistry Instructor at UC Berkeley

12:55 Optional: Travel to Irving Park 707 NE Fremont St, Portland, OR 97212 for Basketball and Soccer playtime

NEW ALTAR SERVER VESTMENTS NEEDED

Our altar server vestments have been lovingly mended and cleaned many times over, but the material is reaching the end of its life, and the time approaches to invest in new vestments for our altar servers. If you would like to contribute towards this parish expense, we would be so grateful! Simply add the memo "server vestments" to your donation – it can be sent to the office or placed in the collection basket. Thank you!
