Dear Parishioners:

Most of us know from our parents and/or catechism classes that all Catholics are obliged under grave sin to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. Thus, to miss Mass without a proper dispensation requires going to confession for forgiveness in order to “right” our relationship with Christ and His Church. Early last year, as COVID-19 appeared and began to ravage through many communities, our civic leaders imposed a lockdown which had the effect of canceling any and all public gatherings. Bishops throughout the world responded in kind by dispensing all the Faithful from the obligation to regularly attend Sunday Mass. Until just recently, this dispensation has remained in effect. Dispensations are regulated by individual bishops.

This past June 17th, Archbishop Sample issued a letter changing the terms of the dispensation. While there has always been a dispensation for the sick and infirm and for those who experience hardship in getting to Mass, many people did not know this. Thus, Archbishop more clearly calls out these groups as being dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass. Furthermore, this dispensation now extends to those who have grave fears about contracting the virus. Fear is something that can affect some people more severely than others and we must always be mindful of their needs. St. Paul calls out charity as being the highest of all virtues.

For all other people, those in good health, and those who have the capacity to resume normal activities, the dispensation has been lifted. In other words, most people now have the obligation to return to Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. As before, there is no checking, there are no judgments. We must all rely on our own consciences to inform our behavior. Yet, we must ask ourselves if we are excusing ourselves from Mass are we doing so because of real fear and real conditions? Or, have we become accustomed to merely watching video streams, or nothing at all? While these were okay during the period of uncertainty and controlled external restrictions, there is absolutely no substitution for being physically present to the Sacred Mysteries of the Mass.

Keep on alert from our parish briefings such as this letter, our bulletin, and social media. Throughout the coming weeks we will launch various events and parish initiatives to renew our mission of salvation of souls. Through prayer, community, faith formation, and mission we hope to radiate the Light of Christ within Holy Rosary Parish and in the Portland area. Stay tuned for parish briefings such as this letter, our bulletin, and social media for different ways of getting involved.

On behalf of all the Dominican Friars here at Holy Rosary, I hope to see you on Sunday (or at the Saturday Vigil).

God bless you all,

- Fr. Corwin Low, OP

SAVE THE DATE FOR TOLTON: FROM SLAVE TO PRIEST

July 31 | 7:00 PM

Join us in Aquinas Hall on Saturday, July 31 at 7:00 PM for a live performance by St. Luke Productions on the life of Fr. Augustus Tolton (1854-1897), the first African American Catholic priest. A free will offering will be taken.

HELP NEEDED: LITURGICAL LINENS

The quiet, behind-the-scenes caring of the liturgical linens, vestments, and more is a unique and active way of spending time with Our Lord. Ordinary tasks of washing, ironing, cleaning, and needlework are anything but that when doing so for Christ. Your parish is currently in great need of help with these tasks. Perhaps you have heard a calling to help your parish in this extraordinary way of caring for Christ. If you are interested in learning more or would like to volunteer, please contact Cary at caryschmidgall@gmail.com.

NEW ALTAR SERVER VESTMENTS NEEDED

Our altar server vestments have been lovingly mended and cleaned many times over, but the material is reaching the end of its life, and the time approaches to invest in new vestments for our altar servers. If you would like to contribute towards this parish expense, we would be so grateful! Simply add the memo "server vestments" to your donation – it can be sent to the office or placed in the collection basket. Thank you!

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Please note that the office will be closed on Monday, July 5 in observance of Independence Day; however, our liturgical schedule will remain the same.

FIRST FRIDAY DEVOTION July 2 | 7:00 PM

Join us on July 2 for confession at 7 PM and a Dominican Rite Low Mass with Devotion to the Sacred Heart at 7:30 PM!

COFFEE & DOUGHNUT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Please contact the office at 503-235-3163 or office@holyroarypdx.org if you are interested in helping serve coffee and doughnuts after Sunday morning Masses – we are so grateful to all who participate in and promote this time of community and hospitality towards parishioners and friends of Holy Rosary old and new!

NOCTURNAL ADORATION

July 17 | 7:00 PM

Join Nocturnal Adoration Society members from all over the Portland metro area in this time of prayer before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, beginning with the Rosary at 7:00 PM and then antiphonal prayer and readings until about 8:30 PM. Questions? Ed Gustafson: 503-804-3950

PICK OF THE WEEK

June 27, 2021

THE BIBLE COLLECTION - PAUL THE APOSTLE

We are celebrating a feast day, consecrated for us by the blood of the apostles. Let us love their faith, their lives, their labours, their sufferings, their confession of faith, their preaching. This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, each of whom spread the Gospel to the nations in the earliest days of the Church. In honor of Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, enjoy this film the Bible Collection!
