Dear Parishioners:

This Sunday we reach the midway point of Lent. How is it going? Are you growing in the life of virtue so that God's grace can permeate your life more readily and completely? No? Me neither. Well, maybe. It's hard to tell sometimes. Sometimes growth is one billygoat leap from peak to peak. But, more often it is the slow steady expansion of a tree over time. This more ordinary way of growth can be frustrating in our impatience. The Church is not deaf to our frustrating cries of despair. This is why the Church adorns herself in rose this Sunday. It's supposed to signify to us that we need to take a small breather in our penances so that we can hit the trail again on our personal path to Calvary. I recommend a minor pause but not a complete one. Too much of a break will make starting all that more difficult. But, a moderate pause will allow you that breath of the Spirit you need to run the race well.

Since this weekend reminds us of the goal of Easter, we would also like to remind everyone that the liturgies for the Holy Triduum, that is, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, will require sign-up so that we don't exceed the occupancy that we are permitted. We will open up that process this weekend. Please check our website or call the office to sign-up for these liturgies. Thank you for helping us with your attention to this requirement. In the meantime, don't lose heart! God is in control. He is triumphant. If our current suffering is accepted well, then it will build for us a treasure in heaven.

In SPND,

- Fr. Gabriel Mosher, OP, KHS
