Dear Parishioners:

On the 5th Sunday of Easter we enter into what used to be called Passiontide, representing the last two weeks of Lent and the final stretch before the Easter event. In the gospel readings, taken from John, there is an increasing tension in the air, whether it is Jesus knowingly approaching the end of his early ministry, or the rising conflict between the chief priests and Jesus. This tension extends into our own contemplation as well as into our church building.

You will notice immediately upon entering the church that things are very different. We have taken the time to veil the crucifixes and images (all that could practically be veiled). The Stations of the Cross are never covered because they recount the Passion of Jesus Christ which is the whole point of Holy Week. Furthermore, it would be impossible and impractical to cover the stained glass (not to mention removing a great deal of our natural light).

While there are multiple historical accounts of why this is done and has been done since the Middle Ages, the most important implication for us in the here and now is that we can no longer gaze upon our familiar faces. They are veiled and blocked from view—thus giving us that aforementioned tension. This disposition heightens our sensitivity to the action of the Passion and helps us empathetically enter into the mystery of Salvation that Jesus Christ so gratuitously gives us.

I encourage you all to come to our Church and spend some time in silent prayer and preparation, to join in any of our liturgies, or to have your confession heard. It is a beautiful time indeed, and one that can help us more fully understand the measures that God took on our behalf, and indeed how much he loves us.

Lastly, many of us have heard through the media good news regarding the pandemic. Multnomah County, as well as many of the surrounding counties, has moved into the moderate risk level, and things have started to open up more fully. We are not yet out of the woods, but this is very good news indeed. While the State of Oregon has never been a hot bed of either infections or death, our government did express a lot of caution. Here at Holy Rosary, we will be making some adjustments in the coming weeks, especially as the Archdiocese updates its guidance. We'll keep you posted.

God bless you all,

- Fr. Corwin Low, OP

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL #15605

Your Knights of Columbus Council #15605 would like to thank our brothers and sisters of the parish for their support over the years. We have been able to support numerous causes through your generosity and our members' hard work (MLK parish sign, Christmas Giving Tree, Keep Christ in Christmas billboards, Thanksgiving Food baskets, Christmas cookies program, Mother & Child Education Center, multiple crisis pregnancy centers and Oregon Right to Life, parish Sunday fellowship and numerous suppers, St. Luke's Productions events, parish picnic, First Communicants, Ignite Your Torch, Dominican & Diocesan religious in formation, St. Martin de Porres food bank, rent/utilities/other daily needs of parish members, and more).

We are blessed to have a pious community whose support over the last 3 years has helped us donate $23,000 and 5900 hours of labor to charitable causes, including service to the parish. Additionally we have spent 200 hours with sick/disabled members and their families. As Knights, we are called to protect the suffering and the vulnerable and to act on that calling through prayer and charitable good works. This is at the core of the Catholic values to which we are dedicated.

I encourage single and married men, including their wives and families, to speak to one of our Officers to learn more about who we are and what we do. Thank you again, and God Bless you for your past and future support.

THE SANCTUARY COURSE FOR CATHOLICS

Today, misconceptions surrounding mental illness can prevent us from responding well to those suffering. This eight-session course explores the realities of mental illness, as well as the need for faith-based conversations about this topic. The sessions feature the stories of Catholics living with mental health challenges, along with the insights of archbishops, theologians, and psychologists.
