Dear Parishioners:

We blinked and suddenly Lent was upon us. With Lent brings a period of penance. We should recall that fasting and abstaining during the prescribed periods (Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and Fridays of Lent) are a baseline minimum. We can do far more than this. More importantly, we can do things that can specifically help us. Lenten practices are not meant to be a punishment or to damage us, but a method of helping us control our appetites and to help us meditate and recognize the sacrifice that Jesus Christ did for us on the cross. While we are not free to dispense ourselves from what the Church asks us to do (except in certain circumstances), we should be able to augment them to fit our particular predilections.

These days, we can fast from things like social media, video games, television, and other time-consuming activities replacing them with prayer and almsgiving. We can substitute healthy activities and actions in place of some of our minor addictions such as smoking, drinking, and even food. Almsgiving need not be cash or writing a check, but could instead be a gift of time—either for strangers (such as volunteering), or for family (reaching out and restore some of our damaged relationships). The possibilities are endless. So even if you haven't chosen anything yet, there's still much time left in Lent.

God bless you all,
Fr. Corwin Low, OP

A number of people have inquired about my trip to Mt. Kilimanjaro, wanting to know more information about it, how it came about, and how it went. Even though reaching the top was a goal of mine, I really was more interested in doing my chaplaincy work, and to celebrate the sacraments. I will therefore be giving a talk on it on Thursday, March 10, at 7:00p in Siena Hall.

March 6 - April 17

On March 6, the first Sunday of Lent, the Knights of Columbus will be handing out baby bottles for the annual "Campaign for Change" run by the Mother and Child Education Center.
